Dear Konrad,

How nice to hear from you after all these years. I still recall with pleasure the time I spent at Harvard and often meet or correspond with many of our former classmates.

Thanks for your kind invitation to get together with the Frankfurt Harvard Club. As you can imagine, the requirements of my job rarely bring me your way. And, unfortunately, I know of no one in your immediate area whom I could call on to accept your invitation on my behalf. My apologies for not being able to oblige you, but I do appreciate your thinking of me.

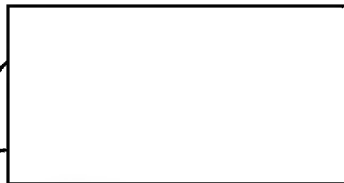

All the best.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Mr. Konrad Philipp

P.S. Best to [redacted] when you see him.

Dear Stan,

It is a number of years that we spent some time together at Harvard University. While you were still Chief of the US Mediterranean Fleet, the Frankfurt Harvard Club made some efforts to get you and General George Blanchard to attend a dinner meeting at one of our monthly get-togethers.

I realize that you have a busy schedule, but nevertheless you might plan to be in our area some day. If this should be the case, would you be willing to accept an invitation as honored guest speaker at one of our Harvard meetings? We are getting together every four to six weeks, about 30 of us, at the Frankfurt Union Club.

In case my suggestion does not sound too enticing to you or you are saying to yourself: "Sorry, fellows, I just can't make it", would you be willing to nominate or encourage someone within your realm to accept such an invitation?

It would simply be great meeting you again.
 another ex-49th AMP, is also with us at the Frankfurt Harvard Club.
